... not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout ... and almost every hamlet of the American States, ... cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true;
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save.

THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 25, 1863.

THE NEXT PRESIDENT.—Not long ago, Mr. Forney declared that the Union Leagues would control the Presidential election in '64, and his remarks having received some sharp comments, he thus responded, showing very clearly that in his belief the next chief magistrate will be a true Union man, neither justifying or sympathising with rebels,—a prediction which, relying upon the intelligence and patriotism of the great body of the people, we have no doubt will be fulfilled:

I might dismiss this criticism of the World by asserting that the best evidence of the necessity and power of the Union Leagues, and the truth of what "Occasional" has been pleased to say, may be found in the animosity manifested toward them by the sympathizers with secession, and especially by the editor of the World. That newspaper, however, is indignant and horrified because I stated in a recent letter that "the campaign for the Presidency in 1864 has been opened by the Union men." I made the statement deliberately—I repeat it now. The Union men—in such organizations as Union Leagues, or in whatever capacity they may please to act—have opened the campaign, and intend to support the President in 1863, and, if possible, to control the election of a President in 1864. They mean to give all the aid men can give to the present Administration in its efforts to suppress the rebellion, and so to act that when the reins of government pass into other hands the men in power will be true to the principles which this great war has embodied. They do not propose, that having suffered so much for the cause, and done so much to bring the war to a triumphant close, that bad men shall overthrow what they have established, and squander what they have gained. To be plain, they do not propose to allow the vanquished rebel to rise again in strength, and place his foot upon the neck of the loyal man. They do not propose to forego the great advantages that come from dear bought freedom.

THE SAFETY OF RICHMOND.—It is supposed by many that the rebel capital is surrounded by defenses that make it as impregnable as any Southern city, and that if our army was able to reach its neighborhood, a long and difficult siege would be necessary before its capture could be achieved. The following from the Richmond Whig of May 18th, seems however to indicate a fear that its strength is not so immense as to make it secure from a sharp and dashing attack, such an one as we hope Gen. Keyes has given it, or will, before many days:

Having failed in all their efforts to take Richmond by huge armies and hard fighting, it would not be singular if the attempt were made to take it by strategy. Cunning is the natural and ready resource of the Yankees when other means fail. All accounts from the United States satisfy us that they really believe Richmond is undefended. They have pretty good means at any time, by the use of spies and through the information of returning prisoners, of acquainting themselves with our capacities for resistance. A portion of Stoneman's forces came very near the city, and have since declared that they could have entered it. Since then it has been reported, and extensively believed in the North, that Keyes had actually moved up from below and occupied the city.

These things are not without significance, and should put us on our guard. The strong reinforcements Hooker has received—thirty-eight thousand men—may embolden him to another attempt while he may have supposed Lees' army may not have recuperated from the week's fighting about Chancellorsville. He has a very large army; so much larger than ours that he might reasonably hope to occupy the whole of General Lee's attention. A considerable force, we know not how strong, has taken position at West Point. What is this for but to co-operate with Hooker? To suppose, then, Hooker again engages Gen. Lee; that, as before, he detaches a large cavalry force to come toward Richmond, and that at the same time the army at West Point is moved in the same direction, is it safe to conclude that we are entirely prepared for such an emergency?

In war there is never any danger of being too vigilant or too strong. To possess this Capital there is nothing that the enemy would not venture or sacrifice. Its loss to us would set us back immeasurably, and prolong the war indefinitely. There is no danger if we are on the alert; there is great danger if we are not. The conduct of those in authority on the approach of Stoneman's freebooters was not such as to give confidence to the people. But be their capacity and watchfulness what they may, help and reinforcement can do no harm. We take the liberty of suggesting that the powers with which the Governor of Virginia is clothed may be profitably called into use. Richmond is full of men capable of such service as would be required of them in its defense. From sixteen to sixty years of age, it is probable there are from fifteen to twenty thousand men in the city. Why should they not be organized and trained and held ready for any exigency? From such service none but the physically incompetent should be exempt. Least of all the hordes of foreigners who prey and fatten on the community. The arms-bearing population of the States within reach of raids should be organized and kept ready for action at the shortest notice. Thus and thus only, with constant vigilance and thorough preparation, may we consider ourselves safe.

PAYMENT OF STATE INTEREST IN PAPER.—The New York Assembly has decided to pay the interest on its State bonds held by foreign creditors in gold, and on those held in this country in legal tender. The policy is greatly denounced by the New York papers as disastrous to the interests of the State. It will have the effect of transferring no inconsiderable amount of State stocks, during the next six months, to foreign holders, either really or nominally, inasmuch as a discrimination of fifty per cent. is made against American holders. And as it may soon be necessary for the State to come into the market for a new loan, the depreciation in the bids will more than offset the saving in interest.

The following named States have made their last interest payments in gold:

Ohio, California, Illinois, Massachusetts, Alabama, New York and Maryland pay interest on their foreign debts in specie, and on their domestic, in currency. Pennsylvania has paid both in currency, but gives an amount equivalent to specie. The States which have paid their interest in currency are Connecticut, Indiana, Kentucky, and Missouri for the bonds issued to the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad. On the remainder of her State indebtedness the last named has paid no interest since the war began. Tennessee and Louisiana have also made no interest payments. Virginia sent one or two remittances to Europe in 1861; but we have seen no notice of any during last year or the the present. So with South Carolina and Georgia. As to Florida, Mississippi, Arkansas and Texas, their creditors have learned not to expect anything in the shape of either principal or interest.

ANOTHER LEADING DEMOCRAT DISGUSTED.—Hon. Benj. Shurtliff, a democratic State Senator in California, has always been accounted most inflexible in his political faith. We believe he was even voted for by the peace democracy as their candidate last winter for the U. S. Senate, and has recently been named as one of their candidates for Congress. The following letter shows that his patriotism is above his love for party, and of course he won't suit the sympathizers any longer:

SHASTA, June 7th, 1863.

Friend Fisher:—I observe, in the last issue of the Beacon, I am mentioned as a candidate for Congress in the approaching canvass. I appreciate the kind and favorable consideration of friends, but I will state now that I shall not be a candidate for any position in the coming election, and you will do me a great favor to state so, and positively, in the columns of the Beacon.

I have just finished reading the noble, patriotic address of the venerable John J. Crittenden to the people of his district in Kentucky. Every man in California, every man in America, should read this address. It is just such a speech on the mighty issues involving the life of the nation as Stephen A. Douglas would make were he living to day. It is such a speech as Henry Clay and Daniel Webster would make could they once more speak to their countrymen. All he says—every sentence, every word he utters—is fragrant with odor of nationality.

Many will not like his speech. Those who hate the Government of the United States, and love rebellion, will not like the views of the venerable statesman. There is too much coercion, too much war, too strong a determination to whip the rebellion into submission to the National authority to suit the views of such men. Then, again, those who never thought the old Union was worth having, and thought this country was not of much value anyhow, because Washington, Franklin, Hamilton and Madison gave us a Constitution that was "a league with hell"—all such men will bitterly assail Crittenden, for the old Union was good enough for him, and he is opposed to a separation, slavery or no slavery. Like Douglas, he believes this is a white man's country, and a white man's Government, and as such he is for "One country, one Constitution and one destiny."

Yours truly, BENJ. SHURTLIFF.

In Clinton county, Penn., the genuine article is claimed to grow in abundance, and the citizens thereabout are jubilant on the prospect of becoming independent of the "pigtails." One man, who owns a farm on which the herb is indigenous, says that his attention was first called to it by a native Chinese, who declared it to be the genuine China tea plant. The gentleman uses it on his table and no one suspects it not to be the imported article.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to June 19th.

NEW YORK, June 19th.—The Herald's dispatch says our cavalry, consisting of one division, met Gen. Lee's brigade of cavalry with a battery of artillery, one mile beyond Aldie, Va., and had a hand to hand encounter, during which we took many prisoners. They were finally driven back. There was slight artillery firing by both parties, without material results. Lee's brigade left Culpepper some days since, and was acting as a flank guard of the rebel army. The rebels only partially succeeded in carrying off their wounded and killed. The fight lasted from 2 P. M. until dark, we holding the field at the conclusion.

CHICAGO, June 19th.—The correspondence of the Baltimore American, dated Harper's Ferry, June 14th, contains the following:—The rebel invasion which has been so long talked about is begun in earnest. It is difficult in our confusion, to ascertain the facts. There is no doubt that a force of considerable magnitude is under General Ewell, and that the rebels conducted their movements with their usual skill, evidently determined upon a bold raid. Their main force under General Ewell, marched on Winchester with the view of surrounding Gen. Milroy's forces there.—The main body is said to have numbered 18,000. The whole rebel force engaged in the movement is thought to be 25,000. General Milroy had strongly fortified his position, and was able to hold the rebels at bay during the whole of Saturday and Sunday. Reports say that in several attacks on the works the rebels were severely repulsed. Finding that the rebels were heavily reinforced, and manifesting a purpose to thoroughly invest the place, Gen. Milroy determined, while it was in his power, to cut his way through and join the forces at Harper's Ferry. The movement was successfully executed, but not without considerable hard fighting. Gen. Milroy prepared for the movement during Sunday night. The rebels soon discovered his intention. A fight ensued all the way from Winchester to within a few miles of the Ferry. Couriers soon after announced that Gen. Milroy brought nearly all his force of between 9,000 and 10,000 in safety, and that he had saved nearly his whole pack train. Those guns which could not be moved were spiked.

Gen. Tyler with his troops reached Harper's Ferry early on Sunday night.

HARRISBURG, June 19th.—The excitement here has subsided, and business has been partially resumed.

NEW YORK, June 19th.—The ship Crown Point, Capt. Hill, from New York, April 9th, for San Francisco, was captured and burned by the pirate Alabama, on May 18th. She was insured against capture for $80,000, principally in Boston.

The Potomac correspondent of the Herald, under date of June 17th, says the news from the advance division of the 4th army corps is most satisfactory. Gen. Wise's whole force fled from the Peninsula, and sought shelter on the other side of the Chickahominy. General Gordon's division, which was in the advance, entered New Kent Court House on June 15th. The enemy made a most hasty retreat to the Chickahominy.

CHICAGO, June 19th.—In the cavalry fight beyond the Rappahannock on the 9th, the Federal loss was 921 killed, wounded and missing. The number killed will not exceed 200, less than 100 are missing. The loss of horses will amount to 154. The rebel loss was 1,200 killed and wounded, and 200 prisoners.

NEW YORK, June 19th.—A special to the Tribune, dated Harrisburg, June 18th, 4 P. M., says a dispatch from Chambersburg reports the enemy returning in force.

PHILADELPHIA, June 19th.—A special from Shippingsburg, Pa., dated this morning, says the rebels are this side of Green Castle.

NEW YORK, June 19th.—The Baltimore American contains the following: A body of rebels near Point of Rocks, captured about 20 of our cavalry; another body crossed further up and had a fight with our cavalry at Cotoctin Station. Twenty-three cars destined for Baltimore, with a few passengers, was captured at Point of Rocks. The train was burned, the passengers were carried off and the telegraph line cut. The rebels are in considerable force at the old South Mountain battle-ground.

WASHINGTON, June 19th.—Official information has been received, that Col. DeCourcey, with a detachment of cavalry, cut off Triplet's brigade, the body of rebels that made the recent raid upon Maysville, Ky., killing and wounding many, and taking 100 prisoners, and recovering the property stolen.

SACRAMENTO, June 19th 10 P. M.—The following are the nominations in the Republican Convention: For Governor, F. F. Low; For Lieutenant Governor, T. N. Machin; For Congress, T. Shannon, Wm. Higby, C. Cole; Secretary of State, B. B. Reading; Treasurer, R. Pacheco; Controller, Geo. Oulton; Attorney General, J. G. McCullough; Clerk of Supreme Court, W. D. Harriman; State Printer, O. M. Clayes; Surveyor General, J. F. Houghton; Supreme Judges, O. L. Shafter, Lorenzo Sawyer, and A. L. NEW ALBANY, Ind., September 25, 1859.

MESSRS. A. L. SCOVILL & Co.—Gents: In answer to your inquiries about the cure of my son, I will say that he is now ten years old, and has been SCROFULOUS FROM INFANCY, although under the care of our best physicians, who said that he could not be cured. In the first place the disease made its appearance in small knots upon the glands of his neck, and finally they ulcerated and formed running sores, which reduced him almost to a skeleton. He lost his appetite, and we gave him up, and thought that he could not be cured. I got DR. MOTT'S LIVER PILLS, following the directions. He had used them but a short time before he was greatly relieved, and now is entirely well. Yours truly, ROBERT STILE.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Business is still liv[illegible] before Recorder McCoy. Wm. Brogan w[illegible] found yesterday lying in the street in a st[illegible] of happy forgetfulness, and taken up bef[illegible] the bar of judgment and fined five dollars [illegible] costs, which he paid in preference to goin[illegible] jail.

John Shephard and J. R. Witherel, for v[illegible] lating Ordinance No. 141 in acting as stea[illegible] boat runners without license, were each fin[illegible] five dollars and costs. Paid.

Severals parties who were arraigned a[illegible] fined ten dollars and costs each for non-pa[illegible] ment of license, have appealed their cases [illegible] the Circuit Court.

We believe it would be a good idea for t[illegible] Council to have Ordinances No. 141 and 1[illegible] printed in pamphlet form and nailed over t[illegible] door or placed on the centre-table of each [illegible] our citizens, as many of those who are arre[illegible] ted for their violation feign ignorance of t[illegible] existence of such laws, with the hope of esc[illegible] ping the usual fines imposed. However, no[illegible] so blind as those who won't see.

Mr. Wm. R. Clark, City Marshal, deserv[illegible] much credit for the energetic and faithf[illegible] manner in which he discharges his dutie[illegible] and especially in enforcing several city or[illegible] nances recently passed. Many persons fi[illegible] fault, and in some cases become real ang[illegible] at Mr. Clark, for the strict observance of t[illegible] laws which he enforces, wherein they shoul[illegible] give him praise for his efficiency as a publ[illegible] officer.

GOLD DUST.—Since the sailing of the la[illegible] steamer, over two hundred thousand dollars [illegible] gold dust have been brought to this city[illegible] And this is undoubtedly a low estimate. [illegible] the Boise mines, according to the statement[illegible] of reliable and candid men, there is at lea[illegible] the sum of $500,000 in dust, ready for ship[illegible] ment. This is just the beginning of return[illegible] from our mines, and nothing in compariso[illegible] with the shipments which will begin to com[illegible] down in a few weeks.

MR. SIMS appreciates the past liberal patronage of his friends, and trusts he may continue to merit it in the future. For the information of strangers he would say that he feels confident that his experience in his particular calling is surpassed by none on the coast, which his superior work, sold to almost every town in California, Oregon, Victoria, and the Sandwich Islands, and to be seen on some of the best buildings in San Francisco, fully attest.

Also—A very large lot of Second Hand Shutters, of various dimensions, all for sale at very low rates.

A. J. BUTLER,

WOULD RESPECTFULLY call the attention of the public generally, and to some of the citizens of Portland particularly, that he DOES NOT deal in Dry Goods, Boots, Shoes, Groceries, &c, &c, but he does desire to inform them that he is a Legitimate Practical Hatter,

and has served a regular apprenticeship to become so. We deal in nothing but

HATS AND CAPS,

and have them in

Every Variety, Style, Color, Shape & Price

In selling a gentleman a Hat, we do not permit him to wear the same, (if it be a Soft Hat,) out of our establishment until the packing crease have been removed; and if it be a stiff Hat, until it has been moulded and shaped to suit the particular formation of his head.

We do not ask a person a price, expecting to fall to one-half the original price asked, BUT ONE PRICE and no abatement is our way of doing business.

That principle being understood, we solicit the patronage of the public generally. A. J. BUTLER,

DR. D. JAYNES'
EXPECTORANT
AND SANATIVE PILLS

HAVE BEEN BEFORE THE PUBLIC SO LONG, and found such general favor in every region of Country where they have been sold, (and there is no place on the civilized globe where they have not been sold,) that it would seem almost superfluous at this time to direct attention to them through the medium of the press. Yet it is due to suffering humanity, and especially to that numerous class who in the changeable climate of the Pacific Coast, suffer from

Diseases of the Lungs & Throat, inducing and ending in CONSUMPTION, many of whom may not have used this remedy, that they should be allowed to read of some of the cases where its influence has been useful in remedying complaints from which they are suffering. The EXPECTORANT

Operates immediately upon the Disease,
SURELY AND SPEEDILY ERADICATING IT,

while the SANATIVE PILLS, by preserving regularity in the Bowels, and giving a healthy tone to the other internal organs, aid and assist the perfect operation of the former.

Attention is asked to the following Certificates, selected at random from the mass in the possession of the proprietors:

UPPER UWCHLAN, Chester Co. Pa, Sept 1, 1858.
Dr. D. JAYNE—Having been afflicted with ASTHMA and BRONCHITIS, and having the advice of some of the most eminent physicians, whose skillful treatment of my case did not prove to be of any avail, I obtained no relief for my suffering until I commenced the use of your EXPECTORANT. After taking it for about three months, I was entirely cured. NATHAN PENNYPACKER.

ASTORIA, Long Island, Jan 1, 1860.
L. W. TINELLI, Esq. New York—Sir: As you well know I had been afflicted with BRONCHITIS, accompanied with the most painful tightness of the chest, and great difficulty in breathing for nearly two months, and I had almost lost all confidence in the power of medical science, when at your friendly suggestion, I began the well known (but not enough known) "EXPECTORANT" of Dr. Jayne, of Philadelphia. Three or four days after having commenced to take it, my cough had nearly subsided, the expectoration was easy, and the breathing quite free.

I am now quite another man, and my general health has never been better.

I remain, my dear Tinelli, with esteem, your servant and friend, J. D. MONTE.

WINFIELD, Tuscarawas Co, O., May 31, 1860.
DR. D. JAYNE—Dear Sir: One bottle of your Expectorant cured my daughter of the LUNG FEVER, after having been beyond the hopes of recovery. During the attack she had a number of convulsions. She is now perfectly well. J. H. COFFMAN.

BURLINGTON, Bradford Co. Pa. July 23, 1860.
DR. D. JAYNE—Dear Sir: My son was for one and a half years afflicted with a disease resembling CONSUMPTION. For two years he was not able to labor. He was finally induced to try your EXPECTORANT and PILLS, and after taking 10 bottles and some PILLS, was completely cured, and is now able to labor every day. JOHN HENRY.

We would add to the above that we sold to Mr Henry the medicine for his son, and know that the statement is true.
MERRY, WILHELM & CO.

For a greater number and variety of certificates, and fuller information regarding these and other of Dr. D. Jayne's and Son's Preparations, reference is given to the ANNUAL ALMANAC, which may be had from any Druggist or Dealer in Medicines.

DR. BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oils and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases: If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally, morning, noon and night; it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea, to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhœa, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely, and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe parts affected morning and night; at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea; it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short tim

Not Yet!

BY WILLIAM CULLEN BRYANT.

O country, marvel of the earth!
O realm to sudden greatness grown!
The age that gloried in thy birth,
Shall it behold thee overthrown?
Shall traitors lay that greatness low?
No, land of hope and blessing, No!

And we who wear thy glorious name,
Shall we, like cravens, stand apart,
When those whom thou hast trusted aim
The death-blow at thy generous heart?
Forth goes the battle-cry, and lo!
Hosts arise in harness, shouting No!

And they who founded, in our land,
The power that rules from sea to sea,
Bled they in vain or vainly planned
To leave their country great and free?
Their sleeping ashes from below
Send up the thrilling murmur, No!

Knit they the gentle ties which long
These sister States were proud to wear,
And forged the kindly links so strong
For idle hands in sport to tear,
For scornful hands aside to throw?
No, by our father's memory, No!

Our humming marts, our iron ways,
Our wind-tossed woods on mountain crest;
The hoarse Atlantic, with his bays,
The calm, broad Ocean of the West,
And Mississippi's torrent flow,
And loud Niagara, answer No!

Not yet the hour is nigh, when they
Who deep in Eld's dim twilight sit,
Earth's ancient kings shall rise and say,
"Proud country, welcome to the pit,
So soon art thou like us brought low."
No, sullen group of shadows, No!

For now, behold, the arm that gave
The victory in our fathers' day,
Strong as of old to guard and save—
That mighty arm which none can stay—
On clouds above and fields below,
Writes in men's sight, the answer, No!

The Cabinet Sketched.

Let me sketch in a free-and-easy style the members of the present Cabinet: Seward is small in stature, big as to nose, light as to hair and eyes, averse to all attempts upon his portrait, and very republican in dress and manner of living. He is affable and pleasant; accessible—from a newspaper point of view—smoking cigars always, ruffled or excited never, astute, keen to perceive a joke, appreciative of a good thing, and fond of "good victuals," if not of luxurious furniture. He has a desire for the Presidency, and all of the protests to the contrary cannot shake my humble belief in that fact, and Seward's consummate tact and ability. He is an advocate of conservatism and McClellan, not generally popular here, and sits on the small of his back, twirling his watch guard and telling pleasant stories of the past and present. He is unpopular with Mrs. Lincoln, who would like to see Sumner in his place.

Stanton is what is popularly known as a "bull-head;" that is to say, he is opinionated, implacable, intent, and not easily turned from any purpose. He is stout, spectacled, black as to hair and eyes, and Hebraic as to nose and complexion. He has a little, aristocratic wife, lives in handsome style, consuming much of his large fortune, probably, in his ample and somewhat gorgeous way of living. Stanton is exceedingly industrious, mindful of the interests of his Bureau, never off from his post, works like a trooper and spends day and night at his office when under a strong pressure. He does not appear to have the maggot of the next Presidency in his brain, but plugs right on, unmindful of what anybody says or thinks concerning him. In Cabinet Councils he is always for fight, and hopes to have a lick at England before he vacates his place. He is very arbitrary, and shuts and no man openeth, or opens and no man shutteth, with much vim and decision. The newspaper men, with the exception of the Chronicle, hate him as they do Original Sin, for he is as inexorable as death, and as reticent as the grave. He wears good clothes, goes to an Episcopal church—if at all—and would be much more popular if he were not so domineering and so in love with the beauties of military law.

Secretary Chase is dignified, able and ambitious, likewise he is the special antipathy of the New York Herald, and the mirror of perfection for the Times, whose Washington staff of correspondents are the favorites of Mr. Chase and his first assistant flunkey, Mr. Harrington, whose humble origin makes him no better, but much worse in his present influential position. Mr. Chase is large, fine looking, and his well flattered picture may be found on the left hand end of any one dollar greenback, looking ten years handsomer than the light haired Secretary. He is reserved, unappreciative as to jokes, and has a low opinion of Presidential humor and fun generally. He gained a transient reputation for fairness by refusing to give positions to Ohio people when he first took his seat in the Cabinet, but afterward revenged himself and his fellow-citizens by filling his immediate office and many subordinate ones with Ohioans. He has a long head. He lives in a moderate style, is a widower, has a beautiful and somewhat airy daughter as the head of his household, and is a regular church-goer. If he should be the next President of these United States the Executive chair would be filed with more dignity than it has been known since the days of Washington. As to his ability, it is only a trifle below the dignity, or the Secretary is greatly deceived.

Father Welles, as the populace term our venerable Secretary of the Navy, is not so old as he is painted, although his white beard and snowy hair—wig I mean—give him an apostolic mien which, in these degenerate days, is novel and unusual. He is a kind-hearted, affable and accessible man. Unlike his compeer of the Treasury, he does not hedge his dignity about him as a king, but is very simple and unaffected in his manners. He is tall, shapely, precise, sensitive to ridicule, and accommodating to the members of the press, from which stand-point I am making all these sketches. That he is slightly fossiliferous is undeniable, but it is a slander that he pleaded, when asked to personate the grandmother of a dying sailor, that he was busy examining a model of Noah's ark; albeit, the President himself tells the story with great unction. Welles is a genial gentlemen, and has, in the management of his Department, all of the industry of Stanton with all of the pride of Chase, which is saying a great deal. He will not lose his place in a hurry.

The rest of the members of the Cabinet can be "run in" in a single paragraph:—Usher, of the Interior, is fair, fat, fifty and florid, well fed, unctious, a good worker, as good a liver, an able lawyer, an accidental member of the Cabinet by the law of succession, and is socially dignified and reservedly get-at-able. Bates is a nice old gentleman, short as to stature, gray headed, modest, quiet, conservative and painfully reserved; he is somewhat of a patriarch—having a large family—is a profound student of human nature, and is one of those close, quiet observers of people who see through a man at the first glance. Montgomery Blair is the best scholar in the Cabinet, but beyond that he is of little account; awkward, shy, homely and repelling, he makes but few friends, and appears to be of but precious little account. If I have been flippant, forgive me; but here you have the Cabinet, such as it is.—Cor. Sac. Union.

Maj. Gen. Rosecrans on Slavery.—For some weeks past a controversy has been going on between the Catholic Telegraph, of Cincinnati, edited by the Very Rev. E. Purcell, brother of the distinguished Archbishop of Cincinnati, and a pro-slavery Catholic journal of that city. The learned editor of the Telegraph insists and proves that the Catholic Church and slavery have never got along well together; that the Church abolished that peculiar institution wherever she came in contact with it, and that it is only in America Catholics have ever been found advocating slavery. The controversy has called forth the following letter from Major General Rosecrans, which appears in a late number of the Telegraph. The editor says: "He (Rosecrans) has never been an abolitionist, and has, like ourselves, stood up for the democracy."

Murfreesboro, April 27, 1863.

My dear Father Edward: The rebels grabbed the last letter I wrote you; but they will draw very little consolation from its contents.

I am happy to see the splendid stand you took in the Telegraph against slavery, with its horrors, barbarities and base immoralities. Slavery is dead. Nothing can resuscitate it. To learn this fact fully, you should pay us a visit. There is not a negro in the South who does not know he is free. Around here they have squatted on the plantations, and refuse to work for any one but themselves. They have sown little crops of their own, and the masters have ceased to exercise any control over them.

As an indication, I will give a strong case. The lady of the house where I am staying attempted to punish one of her negro women this morning. I had to step in to save the mistress from being badly used up, as the darkey was belaboring her with the stick intended for her own punishment. It is needless for me to say that I applaud every sentiment you have expressed in the Telegraph. Your course is that of the prudent navigator, who, watching the black speck on the horizon, sees it expand into a portentious storm, and calls up his crew to take in sail and prepare for a contest with the elements. The storm will pass away and you will be found sailing under full sail, while those who took not heed will be scattered by the gale. * * * I am heart and hand with you in this cause. Slavery is doomed, and those who would now uphold it will be held up in a very short time to public odium and execration. No statesman will vindicate it, no friend of human progress will stretch forth a hand to break its fall, no lover of humanity and religion will grieve for its overthrow. I have lived long enough in the South to see its workings, its disgusting features, debasing the higher principles of our nature, warring with religion, and patronizing vice and immorality. Almighty God has certainly ordained its destruction in this country, where it has been more offensive and immoral than in any other, and until it is utterly extinct this war cannot, from the nature of things, cease. I am in favor of a cessation of hostilities at as early a day as possible; therefore, I am in favor of the President's proclamation. This State was made for white people and free labor, and when slavery no longer blights its borders we may expect to see the church and the school-house take the place of the slave pen and market.

The Republican Party and the Union Party.—The Republican party was formed from the old Whig party, which was disintegrated when its issues became obsolete, and the Free-Soil or anti-Slavery wing of the Democratic party. It was formed to resist what is termed the extension of Slavery, upon the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, which alarmed to a considerable extent, the public mind. Beyond this object it had no general creed or rallying cry, and holds its present organization, as does the spurious Democratic organization, upon and in virtue of issues which no longer have existence. Their is no question or living issue upon which either organization stands or can stand permanently and distinctively, and both must give place, however much they may struggle against it, to one great, popular, living, breathing organization upon the issues of the day, too strong for the leading strings of managers—to elevated for the mousing owls which hunt for party. It will be a Democratic Republican organization. The Constitution and the laws will be its pillar and its cloud, and rebellion, whether open or in disguise—whether of the whole or of the half blood—whether engaged in the work of treason and murder or in acting as the political aids and instruments and apologists of those who are—will be sure annihilation. Treason and disloyalty will have a party worthy of such principles, and the defunct, jaded, corrupt and stultified leaders will have a platform of principles suited to the organic remains of the Copperhead chiefs.—Daniel S. Dickinson.

JAUNDICE,

Chronic or Nervous Debility, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach.

NO ALCOHOL OR BAD WHISKY!

They will cure the above diseases in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred.

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable) hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor Whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles and big bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which instead of curing, only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

Hoofland's German Bitters!

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years' trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,
LAWYERS,
PHYSICIANS
and CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?
If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I, therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23, 1861. J. NEWTON BROWN.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused, and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters:"

Messrs. Jones & Evans—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. PHILADELPHIA, August 23d, 1862. [illegible] Captain R. B. [illegible] [illegible] ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to life.

AYER'S
Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED)
ARE MADE TO
CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK.
Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians, Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.
FOR THE CURE OF Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. SIR: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect,
ED. W. PREBLE, Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.

Fraternally yours,
ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 15, 1855.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Epis. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, LA., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years.

VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION, and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where, which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.
